

RIKKYO KEIZAIGAKU KENKYU
(St. Paul's Economic Review)

Vol. XXVIII Nos. 3-4 December 1974

In Commemoration of the University's Centennial

Rikkyo Daigaku Keizaigaku Kenkyukai
(Economic Society of Rikkyo University)
Nishi-Ikebukuro, Tokyo Japan.

CONTENTS

Once More upon Joseph Harris.....	Noboru Kobayashi'
Notes on a Lecture by Max Weber on „Agrarpolitik“ from the manuscript of a lecture given at the University of Heidelberg in 1897—98.....	Kazuhiko Sumiya
“Market Value” and “False Social Value”	Shuhachi Inoue
Concerning the Basis of the Credit System	Takeo Kobayashi
The Great Practicalism and a Tiny Truth	Fumimaru Yamamoto
Design of World Economy Reconstruction in the Post-War Era and the Havana Charter for an International Trade Organization.....	Yoshiharu Niwa
The So-called Original Type of Co-operative Society	Syoichi Okano
Incorporation of Town and Village after the War —Formation of Local Government in Japan—.....	Takeo Fujita
«Au commencement, le seigneur fut», Is It True?	Masayoshi Tanaka
The Twelfth Century Property Documents of St. Peter's Abbey, Gloucester.....	Kaoru Ugawa
The Tokes, a Farmer in Early Seventeenth-Century Kent	Hiroshi Yoshida
Estimation of the Magnitude of Colonial Commercial Capital	Tomizo Ujita

The Account-Books of the English East India CompanyTorao Motegi
On the Research of Capitalist Business HistoryYoshinari Maruyama
Some Problems on Working Capital ManagementShozo Takahashi
Circular Accounting.....	Seihei Shinada
Unification and Internationalization of
Corporate Accounting Standards in Japan.....	Kunihisa Arakawa
Contents of an Auditor's Report.....	Kiyoshi Nakamura
Relation between Law and Economics —Progress of Japan's Obedience to America and the Problems of Law—.....	Kiyoshi Miyakawa
The Social Structure of the Working-Class Movement
Opposing Industrial Accidents and Public Nuisances
.....	Hisashi Miyajima
Recollections of the Early Days of the Journal
.....	Keisuke Suzuki