

New Directions in Teaching and Learning English Discussion is the official journal of the Center for English Discussion Class, a compulsory English course for first year students at Rikkyo University. New Directions aims to improve the quality of learning for EDC students by providing a forum for instructors to reflect on teaching and learning, design and share classroom activities, and advance an understanding of communicative language teaching in practice and theory. Publishes annually.

Center For English Discussion Class

New Directions in Teaching and Learning English Discussion

Vol.7
2019

Center for English Discussion Class New Directions in Teaching and Learning English Discussion

Volume 7
2019

